

Jersey Boat Show announces dates for 2009.

Jersey Harbours is pleased to announce the dates for the second Jersey Boat Show. The Show will take place at the start of the 2009 Boating season – on the Bank Holiday Weekend, 2, 3 and 4 May 2009.

The three day Show will take place right in the maritime heart of St Helier and will feature not only power and sail but other water sports too.

The 2009 Jersey Boat Show will build on the strong foundations of the first show, offering more boats on the water and on the land. Together with a programme of visitor entertainment these will have a wide appeal to experienced boaters, first time enthusiasts or those who just love being on and around the water.

Exhibitors from on and off Jersey are welcome at the Show, and for off-Island businesses there is the added incentive of the opportunity to take a few days off after the Show to enjoy the delights of this beautiful Channel Island.
